

Minutes of Kittery Conservation Commission Meeting of May 7, 2009

In attendance: Earledean Wells, Don Moore, Betsy Bischoff, Steve Hall, Jan Carson, Holly Elkins

Excused:

Meeting called to order at 5:30 PM.

Correspondence and Communications:

Reviewed various documents, news releases, pamphlets, ZBA Findings, and brochures.
Traip Academy students willing to volunteer for community service for KCC.

Old Business:

1. Rogers Park entrance. Loam/mulch was spread.
2. Dirty Dirt. Glen and Sandra to meet next week to discuss.
3. Open Space Committee. Eagle Scout willing to volunteer to GPS map Town Farm Forest trails, re-mark trails, and re-build portions of trails. Friends of Stafford School want to move School to water side of Fort McClary. But their proposed location will require cutting down trees. OPSC not in favor of this. Next meeting scheduled for May 29.
4. Wetlands, vernal pools, conservation land signs. Discussed getting "shoreland zone" signs made up. Get as many as KCC did for the "Wetland" signs (500-550). Motion made to appropriate $550 for these new signs. Motion passed unanimously.
5. Lobster trap cleanup. Was very successful. Removed five pickup trucks with trailers: ~ 100 traps.
6. PREP Grant. Grant for wetland inventory and evaluation. Due in Feb 2010. Jan will start on this, Sandra will help.

New Business:

1. Planning Board – Apr 23 meeting
 - Post Construction Stormwater Management Ordinance.
 - B&F buffer issue discussed. Owner agreed to redesign.
 - Shoreland Zone Ordinance was also worked on.

May 14 Meeting Agenda:
